

WHO STOLE MY MONEY CAUGHT IN THE WEST

Photographs sent on by the Los Angeles police were identified at Police Headquarters to-day as those of Benjamin Hall and Charles Williams, "strong-arm" men, who, on Aug. 7, last year, held up, blacked and kidnapped to rob John Noll, cashier for the Sackett-Wilhelms Lithographing Company of No. 185 Grand Street, Brooklyn, when he was entering his place of business with a shotgun containing $8,000.

Noll saved the money by throwing it into the elevator, which descended just as the two footpads were grasping with him. Both robbers escaped in an automobile.

UNIDENTIFIED WERE THE MYSTERIOUS HANDS?

WHAT infernal cunning, what devilish brain guided these ghoulish hands straight to the throats of their victims?

Why was suspicion always cast upon an innocent person?

What horrible workings of a disordered mind
that stopped at nothing to gain its own end!

You'll be so excited
you'll hang onto your seat
like grim death, as scene after scene of baffling mystery, strange crimes, stirring adventure, tender romance, and the marvelous unheard-of feats of Sanford Quest, scientific detective, pass before you in the pictures on the screen.
